the UnStarred Question NO. 673 on 28.11.1991, before the Government could notify the prices of ceiling packs, on the basis of reduced prices of bulk drugs, there was change in the exchange rate of rupee against major foreign currencies. As a result, prices of nine out of eleven bulk drugs were revised upwards. In four cases, the revised prices were more than the pre-revised prices. The prices of ceiling packs of formulations, based on other bulk drugs, were reduced wherever necessary, based on the prevailing packaging material ceilings and norms for conversion/packing charges.
